Dear Members, Friends & Stakeholders,

RE: Cando Alberta Board of Director Election

I would like to thank you for the support that you have provided to me as your Cando Board representative over the past 9 years. I sincerely hope that you will continue to participate as Cando members and look forward to your attendance at the 29th Annual National Conference next May in Membertou, NS.

Cando has grown and matured as an organization and has become more relevant to the needs of Economic Development Officers (EDOs) in Canada. This can be seen in the continuous growth in membership over the past year, and in the increasing numbers of EDOs enrolling in Cando's Certified Aboriginal Economic Developer Process. Cando has evolved to better serve your needs and recognize the important contributions that you have made to Indigenous economic development over the years.

The Cando Board attracts dedicated, strong-willed, committed and experienced EDOs who understand the benefits of volunteerism. Alberta's Board member will need to have the skills and abilities to effectively deal with the challenges of building on and strengthening the governance regime adopted over the past years, and to ensure that Alberta's concerns and the voice of EDOs continue to be reflected in the organization and its work. With this in mind, I am asking each and every Full Cando member in Alberta to give some serious consideration to representing your region on the Board for the next three years.

Included in this package are the Election Procedures that will be undertaken in Alberta, a Board Nomination form and a Membership Application form. The deadline to become a Cando member in order to be eligible to vote is October 14, 2022. Please keep in mind that you must satisfy Cando's "Full Member" category to nominate or be nominated to the Board of Directors.

If any of you are interested in standing as a candidate in the upcoming election and would like more information, please feel free to contact myself at shawna@t7edc.com or Ray Wanuch, Cando Executive Director at (780) 990-0303 or ray.wanuch@edo.ca.

In Spirit,

Shawna Morning Bull
Alberta Board of Director

CANDO ALBERTA BOARD OF DIRECTOR

Cando is a dynamic National Indigenous community economic development organization dedicated to “Building capacity to strengthen Indigenous economies”. The foundation of the organization is the Economic Development Officers (EDOs) who work through a host of Indigenous communities and organizations across Canada. This is the profession that is dedicated to the challenge of fostering community and economic growth for Indigenous people. Given that mandate, Cando is currently looking for an enthusiastic Economic Development Officer to represent Alberta on its National Board of Directors. This is a position elected by the province’s Economic Development Officers (Full Cando members) to ensure that Alberta has a voice and a presence in the organization.

Alberta Election Process

Enclosed is a Cando membership application and nomination form.

Cando Background

Cando is a national non-profit organization that is Indigenous-controlled, community-based and membership-driven. Cando's primary goal is to provide support to Economic Development Officers (EDOs) serving First Nations, Inuit and Métis. Cando is both a professional organization for EDOs and an advocate for the betterment of economic and social conditions for Indigenous people.

Structure

Cando is directed by a National Board consisting of elected representatives from:

Yukon	Quebec	Saskatchewan
Northwest Territories	Alberta	Manitoba
Atlantic (two)	Ontario	Nunavut
British Columbia (two)
National Student Board Member (elected annually)

Board positions are elected on a rotational basis for 3-year terms. The Board annually selects from amongst its members, the Executive Committee, consisting of a President, Vice-President and a Secretary-Treasurer. Board members are volunteers and receive no honoraria but are compensated for meeting expenses such as mileage and/or airfare, meals, incidentals and other travel-related expenses.

Board Responsibilities

The Board sets the overall direction of Cando and oversees its affairs. Board members are expected to assume standard responsibilities, which include financial affairs, corporate planning, membership, fundraising, and regional presentations. In addition, Board Members contribute to the development of new projects or services for Cando and its members. The Cando Board of Directors utilizes a number of Standing and Ad Hoc Committees to ensure a community-based and membership-driven approach to initiatives. It is expected that Directors will voluntarily sit on one or several Cando Committees. Therefore, a time commitment for a Director is required which should include: up to 2 in-person Board meetings per year, regular conference call meetings, committee meeting(s) and the Conference & Annual General Meeting attendance. All Cando Directors must sign the "Cando Codes - Governing Directors".

Board Eligibility

To serve on the Cando Board you must be a Full Member of Cando and therefore employed with an Indigenous organization or community and have the responsibility for community economic development. You must be nominated by at least 1 (one) Full Cando member from your region and accept the nomination.

Voting Eligibility

To vote for a Cando Board nominee, you must be a Full Cando member.
